Please answer all questions on separate paper and attach to this application. Remember to make your answers as specific to your life as possible so as to distinguish yourself from other applicants. Be sure to include all items requested on the second page of this application. Incomplete applications may not be considered for the scholarship.

1. If you were standing before God right now and He asked, "Why should I allow you into my heaven?" what would you say?
2. Give a personal example of how knowing God influences your day-to-day life.
3. Why have you chosen to attend PACS instead of another school?
4. Has attending PACS changed your life in any way? Why or why not?
5. Outside of academics, what are your personal interests? How do you like to spend time with your family and friends? What is the most fun you have had in the past month?
6. What does it mean to you to be a friend? Give an example of how you have been a friend to someone recently.
7. Outside of family and Biblical characters, who is your hero and why?
8. Why do you deserve the Jon Desso Scholarship?
9. If you were a recipient of the scholarship how would it benefit you?
10. What are your plans for your life after you graduate from PACS?

Please include the following items in order to complete your application process.

1. A current report card or transcript that includes your present grade point average.
2. A copy of your parents' income tax forms for the previous year. Names and social security numbers will not be revealed.
3. Have a friend write a letter describing what kind of friend you are. Have your friend submit the letter (by hand or by mail) to the PACS office in a sealed envelope with your name and 'Jon Desso Scholarship Application' written on the outside.

They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so they may take hold of that which is truly life.
